Town and County Items

Dr. I.K. Leming reports considerable sickness throughout the country.

Mr. M.M. Beavers returned from a hurried trip to Fort Smith last Monday.

Attorney Wallis sends the Citizen to a relative in Crawford county. Thanks.

If you want a first-class meal, go to the Waldron boarding house—by Mrs. Wilson.

Call and examine Stone Bros. stock, which is full and complete, and cheap for cash.

Mr. Sidney Wilson is a very successful land lawyer. If your land titles are defective call and see him.

Mr. S.K. Duncan, one of the best woodworkmen in Western Arkansas, will please accept our thanks for favors shown this office.

The Waldron Bakery turns out the finest baker's bread ever we ate, and we advise all lovers of good bread to give it their patronage.

We received a very pleasant call a few days ago from Esquire Sterling, of Cross creek township. He reports hard times in his neighborhood.

Last Saturday will long be remembered as Dusty Saturday. From eight o'clock in the morning until late in the evening the wind blew a perfect gale, carrying with it clouds of dust.

Esquire W.R. Cox called in to see a copy of the Citizen last Saturday, and one glance at it induced him to fork over the amount of one year's subscription. He will please accept thanks.

In this issue will be found the card of Mr. W.R. Jenkins, blacksmith and wood workman. Mr. Jenkins is an experienced man in his line, and all who patronize him will go away satisfied with their work.

Messrs. Bohnstein & Kerstein, blacksmiths, fully understand their business, as the work they recently turned out for this office shows. Those who want good work done in their line should not fail to patronize them.

One J.P. Webb was arrested a few days ago in this county on a warrant from Yell county, charged with obtaining goods under false pretense, also running off mortgaged property. He now languishes in the Danville jail.

The Rev. Mr. Limbird delivered his farewell sermon at this place on Sunday night last. He leaves here in a few days for Polk county, leaving behind him many friends and admirers who wish him much success in his new field.

Everybody is busy picking cotton.

The county clerk's office is rushed with business.

If you have chronic chills, go to Dr. J.O.A. Sullivan and get cured.

Mr. M. Pennington was quite sick the forepart of the week, but is able to be out again.

Mr. Dan Hogan has quit the gin business and gone to the country. Sorry to lose you, Dan.

Harvey Bros. will give you sixty large bars of soap for one dollar, and other goods in proportion.

J.G. Terrell's is the boss place to buy groceries. You always get the best goods and the lowest prices.

One and two year old grape vines, 26 best varieties, for sale by Wm. B. Turman. Best to set them out early.

The Frisco extension, we are informed, has at last struck Scott county, invading its territory a few feet. "Oh, ye of little faith."

I am sorely troubled and grievously vexed about cash, and would like if my patrons would call and settle, and oblige.

Respectfully,

J.O.A. Sullivan

Mr. Tup Malone was in this office a day or two ago bragging about his teachers. He attends the Waldron Academy, and is a bright young fellow. Come again Tup, we like to hear you speak well of your teachers.

J.H. Dobbs of Winfield, proprietor of the Water mill and gin, six miles west of Waldron, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and left a dollar to get the county news for one year. Mr. Dobbs is a good miller and always receives his share of patronage.

Stone Bros. desire to inform their customers that they have closed their books for the season, and desire all parties to call and settle their accounts with them at once.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mr. Cornan, which occurred at Cauthron on Saturday last. Mr. Cornan was a former resident of this place, and a good citizen. He leaves many friends to mourn his loss.

We take pleasure in referring our readers to the law card of Mr. M.M. Winningham, a young attorney of no little legal talent, and chock full of energy. He will be found in the office of Messrs. Washburn & Wallis after this week. We trust Mr. Winningham will meet with the success he so deservedly merits.

Mr. T.N. Bottoms of the firm of J.L. Self & Co., ginners, was in town Monday procuring lanterns preparatory for running the gin nights. They are over-crowded with work, making this necessary to keep up. By-the-by, we almost forgot to mention that he called at this office and left a very bright piece of silver on our table. Presume he wants the Citizen.

Thousands of dollars to be made by selling or using Turman's process for keeping sweet or Irish potatoes, and other food crops, for an indefinite time, in any climate. Township, county and State rights for sale. Big and quick money to active agents. Process warranted and cheap. Large commissions to agents. Address, Wm. B. Turman, Waldron, Ark.

Sheriff Vise made a trip to Boles last Monday on legal business.

T.M. Evatt is the cheapest house in town for flour and groceries.

The livery stable at this place, kept by G.W. Turner, is doing a good business.

Mr. M.C. Malone has been quite sick for sometime past, but is able to be about again. Glad of it.

It is really astonishing to see the amount of cotton being hauled out of this town for the eastern market.

We received a very pleasant call from Mr. B.F. Wolf, one of Gipsons leading attorneys. He came up to attend some law matters.

Several parties who left this county last year for other parts with the hope of finding a better country, are now wanting to come back.

A few loads of wood will be taken on subscription for the Citizen, we will also take butter, eggs, chickens, and in fact anything that we can eat or burn. Bring 'em along.

It is said that the attendance at the Waldron Academy will reach not far from two hundred by the first of January. Not a bad recommendation for its teachers.

To my Polk county friends: You can't afford to haul cotton to Fort Smith. Stop and sell me your cotton then if I can suit you, buy your goods from me. T.G. Bates

Mr. Thos. Walker has rented the room formerly used as a meat market, and intends opening up a boot and shoe shop. Tom is an excellent workman and never fails to draw custom.

Mrs. McAnnally, wife of John McAnnally, deceased, died at her home six miles west of Waldron, on Monday the 23 inst. of pneumonia. Mrs. McAnnally has been a resident of Scott county for thirty six years.

Mr. U.G. Keener of Park was in town the forepart of the week and paid his respects to the Citizen. We understand that he will soon embark in the mercantile business at Boles. Success to him.

We received a very pleasant and profitable call from Mr. E. Morgan, of the firm of Whittington & Morgan, contractors and builders of this place, a few days ago. The firm fully understand their business in the house-building line and are reliable gentlemen to deal with. Their card will appear in the Citizen next week.

T.M. Evatt buys hides and other country produce.

Mumps are reported in the White Church neighborhood.

Parties indebted to Dr. I.K. Leming are requested to come and settle as early as possible.

Mr. J.W. Evatt's condition is reported much better this (Thursday) morning by his physician.

Have you enough bagging and ties to wrap up all your cotton? You had better buy from Bates before it is all gone.

R.M. Richardson, traveling salesman for the wholesale house of Echols & Co., Fort Smith, is in town taking orders.

Sheriff sale today in Park township, at the residence of W.C. Hawkins. Horses and corn will be disposed of to the highest bidder.

Esquire Malone made a brief visit to Fourche valley one day this week in company with prospecting parties from abroad.

The friends of Mrs. Ella Gipson, wife of J.J. Gipson of Gipsonville, will regret to learn that she is lying very sick, with but little hope of recovery.

See millinery advertisement in this issue of the Misses Porters. They are fully up to the times in the latest fashions, and solicit a share of public patronage. Go and see them.

A few mornings ago Mr. Bohnstehn came smiling in our office as though he had just struck a cash job, but he hadn't. It was all because he had found a new ten pound boy at his house last Sunday.

Dr. J.O.A. Sullivan presented us with one of the finest radishes we ever saw, weighing nearly three pounds and measuring nine inches in circumference. It was grown by Mr. Schopp, near this city.

Lawyer T.N. Sanford went over on Fourche yesterday on legal business.

Mr. L.L. Nake, merchant and postmaster at Boles called on us a few days ago. He is a clever, affable gentleman and we hope he will make his visits often. Our door always stands ajar.

Prof. Henry Smith of Tomlinson paid his respects to the Citizen office Wednesday morning. The Professor is one of Scott county's best and most worthy teachers, and we were pleased to meet him. Call again.

The fair at Fort Smith is said to have been a grand success, both in its magnitude of displays, and financial receipts. Scott county could make quite a good showing of its own resources, such as mineral, coal, timber, petroleum rock, iron, and agricultural products. And our citizens should at an early day take some steps to get them before the outside world.

Messrs. Forrester & Goolsby are erecting a very fine brick business house just south of the Gilbreath block. The structure will be sixty feet deep and twenty feet wide, two stories high, with fourteen feet ceiling on first floor and twelve on second. The walls are completed to nearly one story. Mr. Lings has charge of the masonry, and judging from the appearance of the work he fully understands his business. The building when completed will be a credit to the town and its enterprising owners.

Seaborn Jones is holding down cases in this office, and a right good boy he is.

Wheat sowing and potato digging is now the order of the day among Scott county farmers.

We regret to learn of the illness of Dr. C. Bevills, who has been confined to his room for several days.

We learn that Mr. Geo. W. Smith, who lives in Winfield neighborhood, is down with fever. Hope he'll soon recover.

We shall give the Scott county oil region a blast just as soon as we can learn more about it. Some of the oil rock can be seen at this office.

We received a very pleasant call a few days ago from Mr. P.B. Young, our popular county assessor. Call again Mr. Young, we shall always be glad to see you.

The Citizen office will be found in the building formerly occupied by Mr. Smith, known as the Little Brick, where everybody is cordially invited to call and see us.

Mr. Thos. Smith has removed his harness and shoe shop in the Davenport block, where he will continue work in his line. Tom is a jam-up clever fellow and never fails to please his customers. Give him a call.

The Cauthron High school commenced on the 10th of October, under the management of Prof. L.B. Reynolds, who has successfully conducted it for the past three years. Good schools and more of them is what the country needs.

County Superintendent Payton was the first gentleman to pay his subscription into this office. He wants the county news and we intend he shall have it. Mr. Payton is a thorough educator and knows a good thing when he sees it. Thank you, sir.

We tell you friends, that it is a soft snap editing a paper. In this office the editor has nothing to do but set up about fourteen columns of solid burgeois, rustle around and steal a little wood somewhere to make fires, sweep out occasionally, and forage around and hunt up grub for nine or ten barefooted children. But aint it nice, and wouldn't you like to be an editor? Come and see us.

We were shown a few days ago, a sample of sweet potatoes grown in the year 1886, by Mr. Wm. B. Turman, of this place, and by him kept over till this date in a perfectly sound condition, and he said there was no doubt but that they could be kept for an indefinite period by his process, which he intends to patent. We believe this to be one of the greatest discoveries of the age, that is, to potato growers. Farmers should give it their attention at once, and try to preserve this year's crop.

Mr. J.H. Neal desires to inform the citizens of Waldron that he has opened up a meat market three doors north of Collier's Restaurant, and is ready to supply his customers with choice fresh meats at from 3 ½ to 6 ½ cents per pound for the next three weeks.

Town and County Items

Weather moderately cool since the rain.

Judge Childs has ginned up to this date 250 bales of cotton.

A postoffice has been established at Huntington, Sebastian county.

We received a very pleasant call this week from Uncle Moses Pennington, the popular miller and ginner at this place.

Mr. T.L. Naake, the efficient postmaster at Boles, called one day this week and reported everything lovely in that section.

We regret to learn of the severe illness of Dr. E.T. Walker residing in Black Jack neighborhood.

Waldron merchants are now having their freight shipped to Mansfield, a distance of about twenty miles from Waldron, on the 'Frisco branch line.

Mr. Bill Irvin of Hackett City had a fine mare stolen a few days ago, and the thief was nabbed by deputy sheriff's Johnson and Gipson, of Polk county. He was captured at the Cove with the horse still in his possession.

We understand that a Farmers' Alliance was organized at Waldron last Tuesday. We were unable to get the particulars of the proceedings or the names of the officers elected, but we are glad to see the farmers moving out in their own interest all the same.

Deputy Sheriff Moore of Tomlinson was in town Monday on official business with Capt. Vise. He paid his respects and some money to the Citizen and is now a permanent subscriber. Mr. Moore is a clever gentleman, and is one among the best deputy's on the Sheriff's staff. Come again.

Some of the girls in Waldron can throw about as straight at a mark as the boys. We saw one last Sunday peel away at a string of green apples hanging out for a sign and clipped the string the first fling. There were three ladies in the crowd and about a dozen nice apples soon perished.

Nice choice beef has been selling in town at from four to five cents per pound. Anyone who would want to eat cheaper meat than this ought to be compelled to go without.

We learn from our exchanges south of this point that work is still going on constructing the Texarkana and Fort Smith railroad, and of course it is a mere matter of time when it will reach this point.

Thanksgiving was pretty generally observed yesterday by all our citizens. Those who had turkey enjoyed it perhaps better than those who had nothing but dry crusts of corn bread, the usual diet of the country editor.

Waldron should have a mail route from this point to Mansfield, and we believe it is in order to petition the Postmaster General praying for the route to be established. Congressman Rogers would doubtless lend his influence to the matter if called upon to do so.

Jesse Martin & Son's, proprietors of the Mansfield Livery and Feed Stable, keep the best of turnouts, at very reasonable rates. Teamsters who place their horses in their charge will know that they will receive the best attention. Give them a call when you go to Mansfield.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend a Thanksgiving Dinner given by Miss Lena Malone, at the City Hotel, and we are deucedly sorry that we could not help participate as we are exceedingly fond of good dinners, but Miss Lena will please accept our thanks all the same.

Our brother S.F. Stone, who has been on a visit here for the past two weeks, left Tuesday morning for Texas. It was like pulling the heart strings to see him start, not knowing that we shall ever see him again. He will remain there a few days and then return to his home in Minnesota. We hope he will again visit us on his way back.

We learn that Mr. Oliver, whose wife eloped a few days ago with one Yancy, a miserable scamp, traced and followed them to Oklahoma, in the Chocktaw Nation, from which point he lost track of them. We sympathize with Mr. Oliver and trust that he will yet be able to rescue his little children. A man who thus robs the happiness of a paternal home, deserves nothing short of hanging. Yancy, we are told, has been the cause of breaking up one other family in the same way and afterwards leaving the woman with a bleeding heart to her own fate.

Whoop! Hurrah! Waldron has got a town pump. Thanks to some of our enterprising citizens. Judge Malone furnished the pump, the county furnished the well, and the rest of us ought to throw in and help pay for the balance. It should be covered and duly protected. Truly this is the beginning of a small boom anyway. Whoop! Hurrah, again.

Town and County Items

Mr. G.W. Turner, one of our popular livery men made a trip to Mansfield this week with his hack.

Of course Haywood Strickland is happy, and why should he not be. It is a ten-pound boy arrived last Tuesday morning.

Mr. Joel Burns, one of Logan county's oldest and best citizens, died last Monday at his home on Long Ridge, near the Scott county line, of malarial fever.

Messrs. J.M. and N.M. Martin of Vernon, Wilburger county, Texas, sons of Thos. H. Martin, formerly of this county, and nephew of J.W. Martin, arrived here last Tuesday and will remain until January.

Mr. E. Bishop was in town one day this week, as good natured as ever.

As yet no clue to the murderers of Belger Cauthron has been obtained.

Esquire Stewart returned to town Wednesday from a trip in the southwest part of the county.

Messrs. Whittington & Morgan informs us that the wood-work in the Forrester & Goolsby brick will be completed next week.

We learn from Mr. J.W. Holder of Boles that an attachment case will come up before Esquire Sumpter at that place tomorrow. Messrs. Stone and Sumpter are the interested parties in the suit.

Uncle Billy Russell, formerly an old resident of this county, but now of Texas, arrived here a few days ago on a visit in company with his son, Sims. They are both highly pleased with Texas, and will return to their home in about two weeks.

President Hinckley of the Texarkana and Northern Railway, has written a letter to Holder Hudgins of Dallas, Polk county, to the effect that his surveyor has been instructed to survey a route to Dallas, before making a final location of the line elsewhere.

Waldron has another watchmaker's establishment. Mr. W.W. Martin from Hackett City has set up his shop in one of the south windows of the Citizen office, where he is prepared to do all kinds of repairing in the watch, clock and jewelry line, and solicits a share of public patronage.

Prof. W.F. Swinney began his winter school at Evening Shade on Monday last. Frank is one of the best educators this county affords, and the directors of that district deserve credit for placing him in charge. He is energetic, progressive and always at his post of duty.

Mr. C.S. Shinn, late of Ohio, but now a citizen of Scott county, called on us Monday and stated that he is well pleased with Arkansas. He has purchased a good farm and will devote his attention to agriculture for a time at least. Scott county needs more just such men.

We received a very pleasant call on Friday last from Attorney B.F. Wolf, of Gipson, who informed us that he intended moving to this place about the first of next month. Mr. Wolf is one among Scott county's best citizens and the people of Waldron gladly extend to him the right hand of fellowship.

We don't see why our friend Columbus Stone should be so often mistaken as being the editor of this paper. There is not the slightest resemblance of each other. Columbus is not near so good looking as is the Citizen editor (so all the girls say) nor can he afford to smoke 2-bit cigars, and by good rights he is due us an apology every time such a mistake is made. Eh Columbus!

Too much cannot be said for the enterprising citizens around White Church, Park Township, this county. They have built a fine school building with a Masonic hall above. They have an excellent school under the supervision of Prof. E.Z. Sullivan, also a Sabbath school with good attendance and excellent interest, and a new Masonic lodge has been chartered at that place with several additions to some excellent material. Under the influence of these healthful institutions no community can fail to prosper.

Bell & Edwards have some good horses for sale for cash or on time.

Col. Wm. T. Brown of Blansett has been in town for the last day or two.

The roaring Poteau delayed the stage a few hours Thursday morning.

Not a vacant dwelling house in Waldron, and many families are prevented from moving here on this account.

We learn from Esquire Stewart that Mr. Sanford Barnes was badly hurt by the lever of a cotton press, at Barnes' gin at Blansett, on Monday last. It is said there is but little hope of his recovery.

The Right-of-way man, Thompson, passed through town Wednesday, on his way to Fort Smith. He had just returned from Walker's camp. That Waldron will get a railroad in the near future is beyond question.

There was a little altercation took place near Winfield last Tuesday, Mr. J.M. Hall receiving a blow over the head with a cudgel in the hands of Jesse King. Have not learned the "whys and wherefores."

Mr. S.S. Lee, charged with seduction, was arrested last Saturday by Constable J.M. Harvey. His trial was held last Monday before Justice Tate, over on Dutch creek, which resulted in his being bound over in the sum of $1,000 to await the action of the grand jury. Messrs. Washburn & Wallis were for plaintiff, and Attorney T.N. Sanford for defendant.

NOTICE

My wife having left my bed and board without just cause or provocations, I hereby warn all parties not to credit her on my account. James Heaslett, Blansett, Ark., Dec. 22, 1887.

Last Monday was a clincher on the ears and fingers.

Mr. C.J. Stewart of Brawley was in town last Saturday.

We received a very pleasant call one day last week from S. Slusher of Black Fork.

Elsewhere will be found notice for leasing certain described school lands in this county.

Col. W.B. Turman in company with Scott county's clever clerk, went to Dardanelle this week to look after some land matters.

We received a very pleasant call a few days ago from Mr. E.E. Payne, a solid farmer residing about four miles east of Waldron.

Mr. Addison in company with one of his neighbors made the Citizen a very pleasant visit a few days ago. Call again, gentlemen.

Sidney Wilson, Notary Public, will draw deeds and mortgages and acknowledge the same; also give attention to the taking of depositions.

Sorter queer weather last Saturday. A rainbow in the north, thunder in the west, sunshine in the east, clouds flying rapidly from the south and rained all day.

Jesse Pool was married to Miss Addie Harris at Brawley a few days ago, Squire Sterling performing the ceremony. We wish the young couple much joy through this troublesome life.

We learn from Mr. C.J. Stewart that Mr. F.E. Grandy is making some valuable improvements on his farm in Cross Creek valley, by putting up good buildings and clearing up more land for cultivation.

We received a very friendly call from Judge Payne and lady a few days ago. This being Mrs. Payne's first visit in a printing office. We are always pleased to entertain visitors and especially the fair sex.

Mr. W.J. Roberts of the Cherokee Nation bought the Hutchins farm south of Waldron and took possession last Tuesday. He was a former resident of this State and liked it well enough to move back into it. We still have room for more.

You are cordially invited to call and examine my large stock of Holiday goods, novelties, etc. Respectfully, R.L. Maxwell.

Prof. C.F. Shackleford, teacher at Center Point, called on us Saturday, and reports everything running smoothly down in that section, and that Capt. Dyer was doing a land-office business in the lumber trade. Come again, professor.

At Greenridge, this county, on the 1st of December, was joined in the holy bonds of wedlock, Mr. D.H. Johnson to Miss L.A. Parker. Ceremony performed by the Rev. J.H. Harris. We are of Solomon's mind "He that finds a good wife finds a good thing."

We regret to learn (of) the death of William Brazil which occurred at his father's home about seven miles from this place on Ross Creek, last Friday night, of malarial fever. He had been sick some five or six weeks. He was a promising young man and his parents have our sympathy.

Town and County Items

Dr. E. Leming, Sr. gives notice that he has 100 acres of land to rent.

Santa Claus will take up his headquarters this season at Dr. G. Cox's drug store.

Joseph Lyery of this county left last Tuesday morning for Alabama on a visit.

Mrs. Jane Vester and children of Long Ridge, sister of Sheriff Vise, are here on a visit.

There will be two good mules, wagon and harness, with some other property sold by the Sheriff tomorrow for cash.

Rev. T.L. Naake of Boles was in town Monday and informed us that a new store has just been opened up at that place.

Don't forget the Christmas Tree at the M.E. Church-house, tomorrow night. Big affair—everybody is going to take a hand.

Mr. J.C. Bell came in Tuesday night from Fort Smith, and returned Thursday morning. He will soon return to this place and make it his future home. Glad of it.

The Rev. Mr. Thomas Martin, who recently returned home from a visit to his father, W.S. Martin, living seven miles east of Waldron, on his way Saturday last to town, had a narrow escape in not getting hurt by a runaway horse to a buggy. His hat was kicked from his head and the buggy torn to atoms.

Mr. W.B. Sexton desires to inform his numerous patrons that after the first day of January, 1888, he will be found in the shop formerly occupied by J.W. Chrisman.

Messrs. U.G. Keener and J.P. Sims of Boles passed through town Monday en route for home. They had been up to the Fort to lay in a supply of Holiday goods. Both clever gentlemen.

The saw mill men at Boles are said to be doing a thriving business. Judging from the few men we have seen from that section of the county, none of them allow the grass to grow under their feet.

Mr. Lee McDonald was in to see us Tuesday. Lee is a full team by himself, and we are sorry he could not tarry over night with us. Money paid over to him on subscription to the Citizen will be duly credited on our book.

We regret to learn (of) the death of the little daughter of H. Cockrell of Boles, which occurred a few days ago. She was a bright little girl and the pet of the family. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved parents.

Married at the residence of the bride's father, the Rev. B.F. Sessions, near Boles, this county, on Sunday the 18th instant, by the Rev. T.L. Naake, Mr. J.B. Hawkins to Miss Sarah Sessions. We wish the happy couple a long and happy life.

We regret to chronicle the death of three of Scott county's oldest and best citizens, all occurring this week, viz: J.W. Evatt of this place, Allen Brasher, near Waldron, and Francis Munroe, of Nebraska. One by one the old settlers are cut down to join those who have gone before in the mysterious beyond. We deeply sympathize with the family and friends of the deceased.

Mr. James M. Heaslett informed us a few days ago that considerable petty thieving was going on in his neighborhood. Two tramps came into that section several days ago, begging from house to house, and it is supposed that they are the parties committing the thefts—several of the neighbors have lost corn, wheat, turkeys, potatoes, etc. Mr. Holbert and some of his neighbors are in search of the parties who are supposed to be camped somewhere in the mountains. One or two horses have also been missed within the past few days and it is thought by some that the tramps have decamped with them.

Fire at Boles

Special Correspondence. On the morning of the 20th instant, I happened to be up at 3 o'clock in the morning and discovered Sims & Sims' mill on fire. My wife and myself raised the alarm by arousing the community, and succeeded in extinguishing the flames. We were just in time to save the mill. T.L. Naake

The horses that Mr. James Patrick supposed had been stolen from Mr. Hisaw, last Friday night, turned up all right yesterday, they were only out grazing, and taking in the cool breezes of fresh air.

Dr. Waits of Greenridge was in town Saturday.

Richard Hurt and Mr. Jones of Tomlinson were in town Saturday.

Our merchants have been quite busy this week waiting upon their customers.

A son of the late Mr. T.M. Anderson has been very low with fever for several days but is pronounced better by his physician, Dr. I.K. Leming.

Mr. James house, of Ross Creek, in felling timber happened to a severe accident last week, by a tree falling across one of his ankles, crushing it considerably.

The Citizen was honored by several lady visitors on last press day, among whom we remember, Mrs. Brigrance, Mrs. E.L. Gentry, and Mrs. Stewart. The ladies are always welcome.

Bethel Steelman, formerly a deputy sheriff of this county, dropped in on us Saturday. He was on his way to Fort Smith where he will make his headquarters this winter.

Mr. Killian, an old resident living five miles south east of here, has twenty two hogs aggregating two hundred pounds each. He did not feed them corn, but allowed them to fatten themselves on the abundant crop of acorns. So much for Arkansas, and good farmers. Farmers could all prosper with caution and management in this State.

Mr. G.P. Caver authorizes us to announce that he has County Scrip to sell in quantities to suit the purchasers.

A daughter of T.W. Denton residing some twelve miles west of Waldron had the misfortune to break her leg near the ankle, while playing Sunday last.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. D.P. Pondry died last Saturday night from suffocation while in bed. Sometime during the night Mrs. Pondry gave the child some tea to relieve it from a bad cold, and upon awakening Sunday morning found it dead in its bed. We deeply sympathize with the parents.
