The editor-in-chief returned from a trip to Paris last Saturday.

Mr. J.C. Bell has a span of horses to sell on time, or for cash.

Corn will be taken in payment for the CITIZEN. Bring in the corn.

Stone Bros. are selling goods for cash cheaper than anybody.

Five new students were enrolled at the Waldron Academy last Monday.

We received a very pleasant call a few days ago from Mr. S.L. Haney of Cedar Creek.

Cotton is coming in slowly, but commanding a fair price compared with last season.

Ground was broken this week for a new business house adjoining W.B. Sexton's shop.

The CITIZEN is only one dollar per year. Try and induce your neighbor to subscribe for it.

Dr. W.L. Tolleson, Andy Sims and John Hawthorn, of Boles, were in town Monday.

The CITIZEN office will hereafter be found in its handsome new quarters over T.M. Evatt's store.

Annual meeting of the G.A.R. December 14th. Every member is earnestly requested to be present.

Hon. A.G. Washburn and W.B. Sexton are attending the Grand Lodge of Masons at Little Rock this week.

Drs. Sanford and Cox and Col. M.M. Beavers returned Tuesday evening from a trip to Fort Smith and Greenwood.

The Republican club at Lone Star has become quite an attraction in that neighborhood, and meets regularly once a week.

Capt. J.M. Glass, formerly of Poteau, this county, but now of Hackett City, was in town this week the guest of Col. B.F. Wolf.

Pete Dozier is serving his country well by filling up the mud holes in the lane fernenst" his papa's residence. Hurrah for Pete!

Rev. James Weaver and J.L. Hayes are attending the annual conference of the M.E. Church, South, at Fort Smith this week.

We had the misfortune to get a part of our press broken this week but Bohnsten & Kersten made it as good as new on short notice.

Miss Jesse Wharton, a handsome and accomplished young lady of Marshfield, Mo., is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. J.S. Harris, of our town.

Rev. B.D. Jones, Presiding Elder of the M.E. Church, passed through town Wednesday en route to Montgomery and other points in his district.

Col. B.F. Wolf returned Tuesday from a trip to Poteau where he has been several days on legal business connected with the case of Robinson vs Sliger.

Parties who are due me for blacksmithing will please come forward and settle at once, and save cost, for I am forced to collect. J.W. Chrisman.

Captain Scruggs came in from Little Rock Tuesday. He left Wednesday morning for the oil region. The work there will be pushed from now until a depth of two thousand feet is reached.

The new Christian Church is so nearly completed that services can be held there comfortably, and Rev. Mr. Williamson, State Evangelist of that denomination, is preaching in the new house every evening this week. Opening two new churches in two weeks is something that many towns would boast of largely.

Mr. Alex Fisher of Sub Rosa, Franklin county, spent several days in town this week the guest of our fellow townsman D.J. Bohnsten. We made a tour through Arkansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio to Lake Erie with Mr. Fisher last September and found him to be a pleasant and intelligent gentleman.

The following is an extract from a letter from Will Johnston, Gallup, New Mexico: "There has been considerable interest manifested in the election over this territory, and the citizens here hope that four years hence New Mexico will be in the sisterhood of States. With a republican House and Senate this hope shall be realized. My best wishes are with Arkansas and permit me to extend to friends in Scott county my sincere regards with the hope that I may meet them again."

Joe and Lee Thomas and Mr. Gullet passed through town Wednesday with three wagon loads of heavy iron casing for the oil well out at Camp Scruggs, in the southern part of this county. A new interest in the boring business has sprung up since natural gas was struck at a depth of 2700 feet, four miles from Fort Smith, a few days ago, and a sufficient quantity of it for all present purposes at Fort Smith is assured. Col. W.B. Turman says the same man who selected the spot for boring for oil in this county, selected the place to bore for gas near Fort Smith, and the undoubted success there encourages our people to believe stronger in the oil well.

NOTICE: Parties who have purchased fruit trees or shrubbery from the Ellsworth Nursery, are hereby notified that they are ready for delivery, and can be had by calling on P.C.
