

The Waldron News
Friday, October 25, 1895
Local News

The jail has no occupants now.

Bob Duncan is behind the counter at Hamiltons grocery store.

J.D. Baley informs us that he will move to Hot Springs next month.

I want to trade good organ for good horse. J.M. Harvey

Col. C.H. Hawthorne was in the city from Tomlinson last week.

Good two-seated hack and good wagon for sale. Will exchange for cattle or corn. Bell & Edwards

Quite a number of Polk County farmers disposed of cotton here Monday.

Mr. W.B. Sexton is out again after a severe spell of sickness.

I have a good second hand wagon to trade for anything except cash. J.M. Harvey

The public school will open next Monday. There will be a large attendance.

The Normal closes Friday. It has been well attended and is a success in every respect.

Hon. Phon Patterson, ex-assessor of Sebastian County, arrived in Waldron Wednesday.

I want to impress upon everybody that owes me the emphatic fact that they will have to pay me this year. I mean business. G. Cox

Morris W. Lindsey of the Referendum passed through Waldron Thursday enroute to the Atlanta Exposition.

Mrs. L.R. Dozier has received the best assortment of millinery goods ever brought here, and would be glad for the ladies to call and examine them.

Mr. Partain has moved his picture gallery to the yard of the Continental Hotel.

Judge Combs reduced the raise of the equalization board between four and five thousand dollars.

Col. Geo. S. Evans made a professional visit down Dutch Creek on Saturday of last week.

Clerk Duncan will move the clerks office to the old "loft" above Finley & Sons, in a few days. He will be close to the "Reporter."

Dr. J.O.A. Sullivan went to Little Rock Sunday to attend the session of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows. The doctor is a prominent officer of the grand lodge.

Walter Terrell is clerking for J.D. Jones.

Prof. Faulkner returned from Howard County Sunday.

There will be an adjourned term of county court November 9.

Mr. Doyal Johnson came up from Cauthron and entered the Normal Monday.

Mr. J.G. Sanders, wife and daughter of Cedar Creek were in the city Tuesday.

Eld. E.L. Compere is reported very ill at his residence west of town.—Dallas Referendum

Mr. Will Dozier has accepted a position with the "Reporter" and will conduct mechanical department.

J.E. Ellinor will open his photograph gallery at Waldron again in November. See his samples at the post office. All work guaranteed.

Mr. J.D. Jones went to Little Rock Sunday to attend the grand lodge of Odd Fellows. He is a delegate from Waldron lodge.

Prof. Omer Smith opened a subscription school Monday in that part of the school building which belongs to District 15.

Col. John O. Terrell arrived from Wagoner Sunday afternoon. He has been absent some time looking after business interests.

We learn that several of our citizens will leave for Atlanta early next week to be present at the exposition on Arkansas Day, Oct. 30.

The Baptist Association met with Poteau Church, six miles west of Waldron, last Saturday and Sunday. Eld. Hulsey delivered an able discourse to a large audience Saturday at 11 a.m.

Dr. L.D. Duncan has moved his office to the building occupied by Dr. Ike Leming, and the two doctors will have their office together.

Treasurer Finley went up to Mansfield Friday to meet Mrs. Finley and the children who returned from Fort Smith.

S. Browning, the barber, has purchased some new razors. They are keen cutters and enables him to give his customers a nice easy shave.

Mr. L.L. Sims went to Boles Monday afternoon and returned Tuesday with Mrs. Sims and Boyd who have been on a visit to relatives there.

Miss Med Bates returned to Galloway College, Searcy, some days ago. This is Miss Med's third year at that popular institution.

Misses Lura Coburn and Susie Shackelford visited relatives in Tate Township last week. They returned Monday accompanied by Miss Thompson who will reside here in future.

The members of Mrs. Suddarth's elocution class will give a recital at the school building Friday night, Oct. 25. Tickets are on sale, the proceeds to pay for a gold medal to be given to the person most proficient in the art, the question to be decided by the audience present. There should be a large attendance.

Mr. John Schopp kindly remembered the editor last week and brought us a basket of as fine pears as we have ever seen. Mr. Schopp understands the fruit and grape business thoroughly, and when we get the railroad, which has been coming for ten years, his extensive list of splendid fruits will yield a most handsome income.

Last Saturday Mr. P.H. Sanford bought the stock of drugs and fixtures of J.M. Sparks, over which Mr. Edwin Johnson presided in Dr. Sullivan's building. Mr. Sanford has moved the stock to the building formerly occupied by Evatt Bros. and has employed Dr. L.L. Sullivan to assist him in the business. He will put in a large stock and expects to command a good trade.

Mr. Edwin Johnston who has been here more than a year, in charge of the Sparks drug store, left Tuesday for his old home at Ozark. Mr. Johnston made many friends during his stay in Waldron and they will all join the "Reporter" in wishing him a life of successful usefulness.

Rev. D.P. Abbey will be home in time to fill his regular appointment in Waldron next Sunday. Preaching at 10:30 a.m. and at 7:30 at night. Also there is to be an official meeting of all the Local Preachers, Exhorters, Stewards, Class Leaders and Trustees of Waldron Circuit at Waldron Church on the first Saturday in November. Let every member come or you may be surprised. D.P. Abbey.

Copyright Delaine Edwards 2009
All Rights Reserved