

The Advance Reporter
October 3, 1912
Local News

Jack Hill is having some additions made to his residence in the west part of town.

Esq. Lewis of Blackfork Township was transacting business at Waldron Wednesday.

Uncle Lewis Walker of Cauthron visited his sister, Mrs. Speights, at Waldron this week.

Mrs. J.W. Whittington returned last Sunday from a visit with her father, J.F. Estman, at Cameron, Okla.

A.H. Broking returned Tuesday morning from Bokoshe, Oka. where he has been visiting his son for several days.

C.W. Jones, who sold a part of his farm north of town about a year ago to A.J. Myers of Kansas, bought it back last Saturday.

Judge S.K. Duncan, Geo. and Chas. Forrester were business visitors to Fort Smith Sunday, returning home Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F.M. Evatt of Huntington are visiting their son, Mitchell Evatt, and daughter, Mrs. I.K. Leming, at Waldron this week.

Dr. Leming has both phones in his residence and will continue to attend all calls, day or night. Citizens phone 4 rings. Waldron phone No. 43.

Hubert J. Hall is agent for the Union Central Life Insurance Co. The oldest, strongest, best and cheapest old line insurance. See him for life insurance.

A girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Pitts Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. C.M. Spencer are proud parents of a fine baby, born at their home two miles south of town Monday.

L.L. Bates of Heavener has our thanks for a renewal on subscription to the Advance Reporter this week. Let others come forward in a like manner.

Mrs. G.D. Hughes and son, Ray, are visiting relatives at Roff, Okla. this week. They were accompanied by Mr. Hughes as far as Mansfield.

Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Chandler of Oliver visited Mrs. Chandler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Tate, and other relatives and friends at Waldron the latter part of last week.

C.H. Payton, who has been teaching a summer term of school at Blansett, passed through Waldron Saturday on his way to his home at Mansfield, having closed his school.

Gardner Hansard, who taught a summer school at Galena, Polk County, closed his school last Friday and returned to Waldron Sunday. He entered the Waldron High School Tuesday.

Miss Maud Farnsworth closed her summer school in Blansett Township last Friday and returned home Sunday. Her patrons speak in high praise of her ability as a teacher.

Al Hopkins has purchased an up-to-date sewing machine hack.

W.H. Wilson moved to the residence property of Mrs. Goolsby last Monday.

The Arkansas Western train jumped the track near Oliver Sunday evening.

Mesdames Marion and Opal Baker of Stringer were shopping in Waldron Tuesday.

G.S. Thomas of Winfield has our thanks for a renewal while in Waldron last Saturday.

Rev. J.W. Hulsey attended the Fifth Sunday meeting at Hon Saturday and Sunday.

D.A. Miller of Brawley Township joined the "Heaven Bless 'Em" class while in Waldron last Thursday.

W.R. Cates of Boles handed us a renewal on his subscription to the Advance Reporter while in Waldron Tuesday.

Pres Adamson and sister, Miss Grace Adamson, returned to their home at Crider, Ky., after a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Wilson.

T.J. Chambers, one of our good friends of Hon Township, had his subscription to the Advance Reporter extended a year while in town Saturday.

Miss Beulah Hon, who is attending commercial college at Fort Smith, visited home folks latter part of last week, returning to Fort Smith Sunday.

M.L. Higgins of Chant was a caller at the Advance Reporter office while in Waldron Tuesday. He was on his way home from a visit with relatives in Brawley Township.

Chas. Munden lost two $1 bills between Mrs. Sallie Smith's boarding house and the Bates Mercantile Co. Wednesday morning. Finder may leave at Bates Mercantile Co.

Preaching at 11 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. every Sunday and prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7:15 at the Methodist Church. You are cordially invited to attend the services.

Mesdames Paralee Barker and Rebecca Rose of Boles were trading in Waldron Tuesday, and called at the Advance Reporter office and ordered the paper sent to W.N. Dodds, Niles, Okla.

Chapman Hough came down from Mansfield last Thursday and will assist in the postoffice here for several weeks. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Miller, and children, who visited Judge Stone and family a few days.

Rev. E.P. Wall returned from Cauthron Monday where he had been in connection with some work for the Christian congregation. Last Sunday he preached at that place using for his subject, "Roman Catholicism." His sermon was well received with a large attendance.

Robert R. Pitman of Gate was looking after business in Waldron the first of the week.

M.C. Malone is having some improvements put on his home place in West Waldron this week in the way of new fencing.

Rev. B.F. Musser preached two interesting sermons at the Methodist Church last Sunday. Good congregations attended.

The Misses Schnell gave a delightful Rook party Tuesday night and those who attended voted it a very enjoyable affair.

Mitchell Evatt, who has been teaching school at Keener for the past several months, closed his school there Friday and returned to his home at Waldron.

Miss Eda Schnell, who has been teaching school at Newman for the past several months, finished her work there Friday and returned to her home at Waldron.

Miss Irma Payne closed a successful term of school at Winfield Friday and returned to her home at Waldron. She left Sunday for Bates, where she began another term of school.

At the regular meeting of the town council Monday night Jas. Staner was elected city marshal in place of R.L. Beasley. Mr. Beasley has made a good marshal and many Waldron people will be sorry to see him go out.

Chas. Allen and family, who recently moved to Kansas City, returned to Waldron last Thursday to be satisfied with Scott County. Guy and Mell Grandstaff, who went to Kansas City for a few days also returned home.

Chas. Lowery and his crew of workmen have completed the bridge across the ravine south (of) the picture show. It is no doubt the finest job of the kind in this section of the state. It is fifteen by thirty-five by about six feet high, and is built of concrete entirely. It is a substantial piece of work and will last for many years.

Heaven Bless 'Em

The following readers have favored the Advance Reporter with new subscriptions or renewals since our last report:

D.A. Miller, Brawley.

T.J. Chambers, Hon.

G.S. Thomas, Winfield.

Rebecca Rose, Boles, for N.W. Dodd, Niles, Okla.

W.R. Cates, Boles.

B. Crutchfield for E.L. Gentry, Winfield.

Classified Advertisements

WANTED—I have 30 acres timber land, oak and hickory that I want cleared; will give timber for the clearing. T.W. King, 2 miles east of town.

FOR SALE—3 lots in best part of town, low price for quick sale. J.W. Johnson, 1104 Towson Ave., Ft. Smith, Ark.

FOR SALE—4 good work mules, wagon and harness, one good saddle mare, 2 young mules and one young horse for sale cheap. T.N. Sanford.

FOR SALE—40 acres land, 20 acres cultivation, 20 timber; good water; 1 ½ miles south of Waldron; 3-room house, barn and crib; partly fenced with hog wire; price $850, terms to suit. Also 50 head of hogs, big and little; 10 brook sows, 14 killing hogs, rest small, no cholera. Call on Dr. C.M. Spencer, who will remain here until Oct. 1st.

FOR SALE—Two dozen Barred Rocks at 50c each. C. Cowherd, Waldron, Ark.

FOR SALE—A merry-go-round, nearly new, 32 feet diameter, with 10-horse engine and boiler complete; will sell cheap for cash or will take some good stock or land. For particulars see McElroy & Cates, Boles, Ark.

NOTICE—A white bull bitch has taken up at my place and owner can get same by calling without delay. S.K. Duncan, Waldron, Ark.

STRAYED—One 3-year-old cow, pale red, white spot in forehead, spot behind shoulder; bush of tail cut off; 2-year-old heifer, brindle spotted; 1-year-old pale red male calf, bush of tail cut off; all marked crop off left ear, split in right ear. Notify J.L. Brothers, Cardiff, Ark.

STRAYED—Two bay pony mares, both short mane and tail, branded on left side and left hip, one has small bell on, left my place at Stringer about two weeks ago. Reasonable reward. W.F. Wagner, Stringer, Ark.

FOR SALE. Two O.I.C. sows cheap if taken at once. Write or call Lawrence Plummer, Hon, Ark.