

The Advance Reporter
Thursday, June 28, 1917

(Local News)

Garrett Addison was able to be in town Saturday after a few days sickness.

Bullet Lodged in Windpipe

Three weeks ago the 11 year old son of Steve Smith of Parks swallowed a bullet which lodged in his windpipe. No serious trouble followed for several days when his breathing began to be interfered with. Last Friday the patient in company with his father & Dr. Robertson went to Ft. Smith to have the offending article removed.

Notice

To the singers of District No. 5. The convention will meet with New Prospect singing class July 14 and 15. All classes are requested to send delegates. All singers are invited to come and enjoy the music. A.L. Partain.

T.B. Cockburn of Cedar reported crops looking good in his neighborhood, though cotton is backward. Mr. Cockburn was here Saturday.

Mrs. Henderson Elected

Mrs. C. Henderson of Waldron has been elected to the position of First Assistant in the Mansfield High School for the coming term. Mrs. Henderson is a teacher of experience and ability, as well as a woman of rare accomplishments and refinement, and Mansfield is indeed fortunate to be able to secure her services. This completes the faculty for next year and the board could not have made better selections for any of the places. Our school prospects were never more encouraging.—Mansfield Messenger.

Population Increases

Last week there arrived at the home of Jim Shumaker, east of town, twin girl babies, each weighing eight pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Shumaker are to be congratulated.

Also a new girl arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fuller north of town about two weeks ago, and also here in town there's a new baby at Mr. and Mrs. McBees, and if this last one is a girl, then as the old saying goes: "All girl babies, means a bad crop year." Better can up all the fruit, berries & vegetables you can.

J.L. Center went to Ft. Smith Friday as a witness in the Federal Court.

Last week Dr. Ellis Fair of Hodgens, Okla. visited his mother who has lately been ill for several days at her home near Greengridge.

R.A. McAfferty & his youngest son made a business trip to Fort Smith Friday.

Baptist Revival Services

The Baptist people of Waldron began their revival services in their big tent near the church first of the week. Rev. Kelley, former pastor, is assisting the pastor, Rev. S.B. Barnett. Much interest is being taken. Everybody come and hear some good singing, also fine preaching.

The party who took Geo. Forrester's fishing rod must have cashed in and gone where it's too hot to fish, and where the Advance Reporter don't circulate. George has advertised for the rod two weeks, and it hasn't shown up yet.

Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Crutchfield returned Saturday from a visit with friends at Quinton, Okla.

Mrs. J.W. Barnett of Brownsville, Texas is spending the week with Rev. and Mrs. S.B. Barnett.

The Mission Study Class of M.E. Church meets with Mrs. W.H. Wilson on Wednesday, July 4. All ladies interested are cordially invited to attend.

Notice

On account of Baptist revival meetings, there will be only two movie shows next week: Liberty, Thursday night and Shielding Shadow, Saturday evening and night. Thank you for your patronage. G.D. Hughes, Mgr.

R.J. Lowry of Winfield has five acres of wheat this season which is making 12 bu. per acre.

Sam Ashford has eight acres which will yield the same. Mr. Ashford raises wheat every year and next year he will increase his acreage to 12.

Charley White of Quitman, Ga. & Mr. A.F. Crittenden of Pelham, Ga. arrived last week in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. E.E. Irwin of Boles. Mrs. Irwin is improving and Mr. White returned home last week.

The following teachers attended the examination last week: M.L. Bond, Lala Plummer, Alcie Collins, Okey May, Raymond Taylor, Overton Buffington, S.J. Fair, Gordon Henderson, Mrs. M.L. Gantt and Treva Duncan.

Marshal J.A. Thornton of Mena was here part of last week and this, rounding up about six supposed to be slackers. We learned that most or all of them proved to be of uneligible age.

Strayed

One three-year-old mare mule, color mouse or dark blue. Last seen three weeks ago, with bow or yoke on. Weight 725 lbs. Notify T.L. Waite, 2 ½ miles east of Blansett, Ark. and receive reward.

Ambrose Hunter of Hawk Creek Valley was in town Saturday and reported a fine rain in his section; crops good.

Joe Hawthorn of Parks reports fine prospects for corn on Fourche.

Uncle Bill Denton was shaking hands with the town folks Monday.

Greenburg & Neeley of Newman, southeast Scott County, reports a fine rain.

Russell Oliver of Waldron is still doing service on the Federal Jury at Fort Smith.

Rev. D.J. Weems, who was pastor of the Waldron Circuit (Methodist) 35 years ago was shaking hands with friends here this week.

Contractor McCartney who is erecting the new brick school building at Hon, spent Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. B.A. Gibson and Judge Hoagland east of town were in the city Saturday.

Ham Oliver was a Waldron visitor last Friday. Ham put us next on the berry proposition.

Dr. A.P. Lawrence, Veterinarian, left Friday for enlistment at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas.

“Jeff” the colored captain of the Continental culinary department, spent two weeks in Fort Smith recently, returning Saturday. Jeff says though Fort Smith was “mighty dry,” yet he “managed to live” while there.

W.F. Oliver in company with his wife & four charming daughters and other members of the family picked 14 gallons of huckleberries Saturday morning and got into town with them by 10 o’clock. The berries were for a Xmas gift to Judge & Mrs. W.A. (remainder missing.)

“The State of the Dead Between Death and the Judgment” will be the subject of a sermon by Rev. J.A. Peters at Haw Creek Church the first Sunday in July at 11 a.m. Everybody invited.

Charley Martin and a lot of his neighbors secured seed wheat Saturday for fall sowing.

Mr. & Mrs. Denton were trading in Waldron Saturday.

E.M. Fuller & H.L. Chiles with their families are spending a few days on Fourche.

Postmaster Bottoms, A.W. Self & Ben Newberry were several of the Greenridge people in town Saturday.

The Scott County Land & Lumber Company is working the roads leading from here to their mills south of town preparatory to putting on motor trucks to do their hauling. It is said they will put on two trucks here, each having a capacity of five thousand feet. They will put on three trucks at Waldron, and five at their mills in Oklahoma.—Booneville Progress.

The rain missed all of the county except the north and west part, but crops are not suffering. The farmers are keeping the soil stirred, this is retaining the moisture.

See the fine sample onions, beets & potatoes on exhibit at the Reporter office. They were raised by W.T. Dedmon, Hawk Creek, Master Luke Gibson & Bro. Shumaker, Greenridge. Hurry in and see them for we'll have to do something with them before they deteriorate.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Garvin of Weeks visited relatives in the Greenridge neighborhood over Sunday. Mr. Garvin reports nice crop prospects in the Poteau Valley.

K. Goolsby and Frank Balkman, two citizens of Fourche Valley were here trading a week ago.

Full Blood Pigs

I have a few choice big boned Poland and China Pigs, eligible to register, well marked, for sale. See me early before they go. Bill Crosby, Waldron, Ark.

Bob Walker still makes his regular trip east of town in his $175 buggy. Bob looks lonesome riding all by himself. He is a widower temporarily.

H.F. Goodwin of Nella requests us to put the name of his brother, L.R. Goodwin of Sugar Grove on our mailing list. Done.

Copyright Delaine Edwards 2009
All Rights Reserved