

The Advance Reporter
February 6, 1919

The cotton prisoner was sent up for three years and the Coaldale burglar for two years.

Tom Sullivan will enlist in the Naval service soon.

New subscribers and renewals: C.T. Taylor, E.B. Vaughn, W.L. Jones, B.A. Bowen, J.W. Austin, C.J. Haynes, Mrs. Tressie Denton, Mrs. Maggie Caver, G.B. Speer, Lloyd Elliott.

Webby Rice and Luney Black are two new salesmen of the Hdw. Merc. Co.

Friend T.A. Hall of Bates called in to see us for a few minutes while here Tuesday. Mr. Hall is always a welcome caller.

Another of our boyhood friends, Tommy Weeks visited us Tues. Tommy has had his share of life's troubles and knows how to sympathize.

FOR SALE—Fine sow and six pigs, Duroc, and one J.I. Case Sulky, plow, nearly new. Lester Bird, Waldron.

For Sale—One gasoline washer and wringer and engine complete only used short time, good as new. Idle, on Geo. Terry place.

STRAY—Dark brown pony mare 14 hands high, scar on right hip, raised near Newman. Notify V. Tolleson, Boles, Ark.

H.E. Turner and H.R. Taylor were here from Mill Creek Tuesday.

Taken Up—Black or brown coming three yr old heifer, appears to be muley, swallow fork in the right, crop off left. Owner call for same and pay for trouble. Dim brand on left hip. Jesse Jones, Cauthron.

STRAYED—Two red horned steers, one yellow muley steer, all coming two years old, brand J on left hip. Reward for information. E.S. Jones, Harvey, Ark.

Strayed—One black cow and one black 3 yr old steer, both branded JC on right hip, marked crop off right and split in left. $5.00 reward for recovery. Notify John Chumney, Mansfield, Ark.

Frank Hoagland died at his home six miles east of Waldron Wednesday night of Bright's disease.

Our old friend Sam Young arrived last Thursday from his home at Ada, Oklahoma, to spend a few days with Waldron friends. Sam reports that Mrs. Young, his wife, is well and his son Cheves is still in the army in the Philippine Islands.

Two grown sons of T.J. Smith of Nella died last week. We extend sympathy.

A two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. H.M. Davis, North of town, fell into a tub of boiling water last Wednesday and was dangerously scalded. The left arm and two places on the left side received the burns.

One of Blansett's good citizens, Mr. Duncan was in town Thursday last and reports several cases of flue in his neighborhood.

G.T. Beach of Dutch Creek drove into town Monday with a four horse team hitched to an empty wagon and said he needed four more (horses.) Some muddy.

J.D. Cook was here Friday from Cedar, reports the recent deaths in his community of the wife and baby of Elbert Defoor; Mrs. J.H. Harwood, and Boyd Magnus. The latter leaves a wife and three children.

Dr. R.C. Cline of Bates visited Waldron last Thursday.

W.S. Shores and son of Harvey transacted business in town last Friday.

Mrs. W.A. Crabtree, Jr. of Oliver was shopping in town last Thursday.

We noticed friend Dave Killion in town last week.

Uncle John Watson had the misfortune to fall from his barn loft last week and broke several bones of his left hand.

Supt. Stringham of the Bates Smokeless Coal Company was a business visitor here Thursday.

W.J. Francis of Bates came up on the train Tuesday. Being in something of a hurry Will asked the conductor if he couldn't go faster. "Yes, I might go faster," replied the conductor "but I am not supposed to leave the train."

TAKEN UP—One brown horse male, 12 hands high, 12 years old. No brands. See Mr. Wiley Walker, 11 miles northeast of Waldron on the Charlie Shackelton place for information.

Ray Beasley and family of Huntingdon visited Waldron friends last week.

Mrs. Wm. Gibson of Poteau visited Waldron friends Sunday.

E.B. Miller spent part of the week in town.

Revs. Roberts and Johnson attended the Centenary meeting at Danville last week.

We are glad to meet friend Judge Ashmore one day last week. Mr. Ashmore has lately recovered from a severe spell of influenza.

We are requested to announce that Rev. L.F. Patterson will preach at Mt. Moriah the 2nd Sabbath in Feb. and the Saturday night before.

James L. Center is spending a few days visiting at Hot Springs.

Hubert J. Hall spent a few days at Bates last week on business.

Judge W.A. Bates spent a few days in Fort Smith recently on legal business.

Otis Evatt of Pine Bluff visited Waldron friends last week.

Mrs. Mattie Whitney of Lummar, Ky. is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T.F. Smith for a few days. She has been away for 24 years.

Walter Johnson was kicked in the left side by one of his horses last week and for a day or two it was thought he would not recover. We are glad to state he is improving at present.

Harley Bird of Little Rock is visiting Waldron relatives this week.

Public Sale

At the T.L. Shores place 3 miles west of Waldron on middle road, Tuesday February 11, 10 a.m. Stock, farming tools, household goods, etc. 10 months time. Farm for sale or rent.

Jack Fuller informed us Friday of the arrival of a new sister at the country home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fuller north of town. The little lady arrived Friday (lucky day) and Jack seemed very elated. Congratulations.

W.H. Stevens of Bates was a city visitor Friday.