

The Advance Reporter
Thursday, February 26, 1925
Local News

Dr. John Harvey of St. John's Hospital, Ft. Smith, arrived Tuesday and in company with Dr. Beville, went to Parks to give Mrs. Dr. Duncan of that place radium treatment.

Mrs. Wheeler of Cardiff who has been in St. John's Hospital for the past several weeks, accompanied the Dr. here and joined her husband who was waiting.

Tom Cauthron is the latest new member of the local band. He has recently ordered a new baritone horn from Jenkins Music Company, Kansas City, and will begin work in the band as soon as the instrument arrives.

Dr. Duncan of Parks was attending to business in town Wednesday.

Tom Nichols and John Hawkins were here from Parks Tuesday.

Charles Sullivan has been ill for the past few days.

Mrs. Ida Hon is ill at her home on Washington Avenue.

Miss Audra Monroe was home for a few days last week from the University.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gipson and daughters of Cardiff were city visitors Saturday.

Mack and Harley Bird attended the Bankers Group meeting in Fort Smith Monday.

Miss Marvin Johnson of Shady Point, Okla. arrived Sunday to visit relatives and friends here.

Eugene H. Ashford left Monday for Washburn for about a week's work.

W.D. Taylor and Mr. Hickey of Oden, Montgomery County were here last week on business.

Misses Mattie Baldwin and Zuella Amoss of Harvey were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin west of town last week.

Fred G. Pettengill of Waldron has gone to Mena awhile for his health. Mr. Pettengill is a world war veteran and a live wire legion man.

Mr. and Mrs. L.D. Dozier of Heavener were in the city last week visiting Mr. Dozier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Knox Dozier.

Mr. and Mrs. Free Malone are ill at the Continental Hotel. Mrs. Malone has been very ill of late but the Judge is able to be up some.

J.A. Guyett, who lives near Parks was here Monday on business. Mr. Guyett suffered the loss of his residence and entire contents by fire some weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Denton and Miss Isabelle Farmer motored to Mena last Sunday and spent the day with relatives and friends at that place.

Mr. Spearman of south of town was in town Tuesday.

Hubert Monroe of Harvey was a guest of Waldron friends Sunday.

A.A. Pitts of Harvey transacted business in Waldron Tuesday.

Billy Williams came in from Oilton, Oklahoma Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chunnie Atkins and little daughter, Wanda Louise, spent the weekend in Cauthron.

Mr. Carl McCarthy left Monday for his home in Kansas City after visiting relatives here for some time.

Mr. Thames of the Fort Smith Cereal Company spent first of the week in Waldron.

W.I. Payne of Tuskahoma is here this week visiting some Scott County relatives and friends.

Mr. George Beam, one of Hon's leading merchants was in town Wednesday.

Grandma Rawlings visited her daughter, Mrs. J.D. Benson at Ft. Smith last week.

Jerome Bates was appointed deputy sheriff of Scott County by Sheriff Brasher on February 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Evatt motored over from Booneville Sunday and spent the day with relatives and friends.

George Robson of Mena was here Wednesday attending court. Mr. Robson has a suit against the K.C. Railway.

Mrs. E.W. Hull of DeQueen visited last week in our city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Luther Hopkins.

H.D. Coker and children of Gravelly visited the Reporter office while in town Wednesday and watched the machinery operate.

Harley Bird has accepted a position with the Harris Motor Company and is now engaged in making a canvass of the country in the interest of the company.

Miss Alma Edwards, teacher of Home Science in the Waldron High School, was called to Little Rock last week on account of the serious illness of her sister.

Sheriff Brasher accompanied Huston McRae to Pine Bluff Sunday and placed him in the state industrial school. Mr. Brasher returned Monday night.

The Waldron Produce Company and J. Lawrence bought a car load of Scott County poultry Monday and Tuesday for shipment to foreign markets.

Maurice Harvey and Mr. York, manager of the Southwest Broom Company, Ft. Smith, passed through Waldron Tuesday enroute to New Orleans where they are going in the interest of their company.

Wm. Chitwood of Abbott was here last week attending court.

W.G. Webb and son of Cedar were here Saturday on business.

D.D. Solley was here from near Mansfield last week.

Nick Beach was a Waldron visitor from Dutch Creek Saturday.

John Forrester was home for the weekend from the University.

Mrs. E. McClarey, lately of Nevada, has recently moved to a residence on Church Street.

Miss Bertha Brown of Bates was visiting friends in the city Wednesday.

Miss Josephine Leslie of Bates was shopping in Waldron Wednesday.

Kelly Sanford came in Monday from Oklahoma City for a visit with his father, Mr. Lee Sanford.

Mrs. Lewis has been ill the past few days at her home on the Washington Avenue and West Danville Street.

Mrs. J.M. Harvey accompanied her son, Dr. Harvey, to Fort Smith Wednesday and will spend the week there.

The Juniors of the Waldron High School are rehearsing a play, "Brother Elks," which they will present as their annual class play.

Bro. George Epperson, Steve Smith and Bomar Hansard of Parks were attending to business in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Simmons has been confined with rheumatism to her home on Church Street for the past several weeks but is improving and is able to be up.

Church services were not held Sunday morning at the Baptist, Methodist or Nazarene Churches on account of the rain which fell during the entire morning.

Mr. O.C. Hunt accompanied his daughter, Ethel, to a hospital in Little Rock Sunday. They were accompanied by Messrs. Bill Thompson and Jim Titsworth.

Harold Beasley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Beasley, suffered a crushed finger Sunday afternoon when, while playing with other boys, a stone slab was allowed to drop on his finger.

Sheriff Brasher left Sunday for Little Rock to accompany a Mrs. Henderson to the state hospital. The lady's home is south of town and she is in a very serious mental and physical condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Duke Cantrell moved this week into rooms at the home of Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Fuller on Washington Avenue. Mr. Cantrell is in the employment of the state highway department.

E.L. Phipps and daughter were here from Hon Wednesday.

Dr. Shadden and daughter of Mill Creek were here Tuesday.

Uncle John Hon of Hon was a city visitor Wednesday.

Mr. Nick Beach of the Dutch Creek valley was trading in town Monday.

Mrs. Tom Olive and Mrs. Sidney Black motored to Fort Smith Tuesday.

M.H. Bird and little Miss Bettye of Ft. Smith spent the weekend with home folks.

Mrs. Carter Lewis and little Miss Bettye returned home Sunday after a week-end visit in Fort Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Hunt visited Mr. and Mrs. O.C. Hunt at Jenkins Sunday.

Bill Austin, manager of the Gem Theatre, is ill at the family home in east Waldron.

Curtis Henderson, the little son of Mrs. Lela Henderson, has been ill at the family home in Waldron for several weeks.

Mesdames S.K. Duncan, Sara Lewis, Kate Fuller, R.L. Beasley, Carter Lewis and Betty motored to Abbott Friday and spent the day.

Mrs. Will Dozier has been ill of influenza at her home on Cauthron Avenue for the past week but is now convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Audas, Mrs. Gus Audas and Mrs. Sam Hise motored to Fort Smith Monday. Mrs. Gus Audas selected a stock of hats for the City Millinery.

Copyright Delaine Edwards 2009
All Rights Reserved