

The Advance Reporter
Thursday, April 11, 1935
(Local Items)

Mrs. Tip Cox is in a Fort Smith hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis last week.

George Crutchfield of the Winfield community reports that he has quite a lot of corn already up, but he has one piece of ground that just when it gets dry enough to be planted, another rain comes, and there are many in the same fix.

John Chiles has fully recovered from his illness but has not yet resumed his work with the lumber company.

Mrs. Sarah Taylor of Parks was shopping in Waldron Friday.

Deputy Oller and Marshal Harris took possession of a car Tuesday which had been abandoned near the home of Vander Hughes, north of town. The car was a 1929 Chrysler sedan, bearing a 1934 Texas license. The car had been driven through Waldron from the south and the occupants left it when a front wheel broke down. A tire was missing from the front wheel when it passed through town.

A dog belonging to Mr. Godfrey who lives in the Haw Creek community went mad last week and bit Godfrey's son and also some stock. The dog escaped from where she had been penned and has not been heard from since. The boy is taking the Pasteur treatment.

Uncle Hamp Cooper of the lower Poteau valley was in Waldron one day last week, paying taxes and transacting other business. He spent the night here with an old time friend, Riley Bethel.

Mrs. Charles Jackson, Jr. of Augusta, Ark. is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ashford, this week.

George Epperson of Parks told us Monday about a powder gourd in his possession that dated back to the Revolutionary war. George's grandfather, Isreal Epperson, carried this gourd all through the war, when the fighting was in Georgia. He will bring the powder gourd up some time and exhibit it. In the meantime we will mail a marked copy of the paper this week to Ripley of the "Believe it or not" fame.

W.M. Livengood and Willie Nichols of the Weeks community were here Monday, also Mrs. Livengood. They were purchasing some feed and other merchandise, including some bread for W.M.

S.A. Thompson of Parks was in Waldron Monday and informed us that he was successful in raising some of the California pumpkins last year from seed distributed by the Advance Reporter. Mr. Thompson promises us some of the seed as we lost out, nearly, on account of dry weather.

We just received a copy of the Chronicle, published in Hempstead, Texas. Ernest Thorpe, former proprietor of the Forest Park hotel is the editor of the Chronicle, a bright, newsy, weekly paper.

E.M. Ferguson reports the strawberry prospect fine and that the berries will be ready for picking in just a few days, possibly a week.

Misses Tarsia and Tula Hollingsworth visited in Fort Smith Saturday and Sunday.

E.W. Collier and Lerdo Frazier of the Greenridge community were here Saturday on business.

John Kirshner and son, Bob, of New Florence, Pennsylvania left Tuesday for their home after finishing up the work on the store building they own here.

Mrs. John Bruce of Cauthorn was shopping in Waldron Monday.

Marshal W.E. Harris has recently moved into the residence on Cauthorn street, purchased from Mrs. Evatt.

Miss Gussie Monroe, bookkeeper in the Southwestern Gas and Electric office at Eureka Springs, Ark. is visiting here this week.

W.C. Boggs was here from Ione last week.

W.W. Gipson has lately moved to Hitchita, Oklahoma.

Donald Poe has recently purchased the residence on Cauthron Street formerly occupied by Mrs. Maggie Duncan.

A.P. Ellis and Spence Bates motored to Hot Springs Wednesday.

Dr. George Holitik addressed a staff meeting of St. Edward's hospital at Fort Smith Monday night.

A 10-pound baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Jones, west of town Wednesday.

Uncle Bob Huie came in from Heavener first of the week for a few days visit with Waldron friends.

John Blaylock, saw mill man of Parks, purchased a new car here Wednesday.

Luther Aikman of the lower Fourche valley was in Waldron Saturday.

John Beam and daughter, Miss Clara Beam of Blackfork visited in Waldron Monday.

Sam Richards of Bates was a Waldron visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Bird moved to the residence of Mrs. Lowery on Danville street this week.

Mrs. Denton Faulkner motored to Fort Smith Tuesday.

Calvin Williams of Rogers, Ark. is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Brewer.

Diaz Day of Blackfork was transacting business in Waldron Monday.

L.D. Wilson of Ione was a Waldron visitor Wednesday.

Dan Harris and two or three other Harris boys were here on business Monday.

Mrs. Dora Woods of Heavener is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L.L. Sullivan.

I.L. Dunn of the Mill Creek valley was in Waldron on business Monday.

W.R. Davis, merchant of Weeks, was in Waldron Saturday.

H.N. Roberson of Nola was a Waldron visitor Tuesday.

Copyright Delaine Edwards 2009
All Rights Reserved