

The Advance Reporter
Thursday, February 18, 1937
(Local News Column)

The N.Y.A. crew, under the foremanship of Bennie Bowen, resumed work Monday on the field west of the high school building. This field is being cleared, landscaped and is to be tailored into a modern play ground as well as an athletic field.

Fence building will soon be completed, back stops for the tennis court and play ground for the kiddies.

This is assured to be a great help in placing children during recreational periods.

A small crew of men started to work Monday placing the main sewer pipes on the sides of streets of the city to be used when needed.

Miss Callie Mae Hunt spent the weekend at Dutch Creek with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hunt.

Miss Willie Kate Smith of Square Rock spent Sunday with Miss Fairy Frazier of Bird's View.

Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Quick and son Elmer of east Waldron visited in Fort Smith Sunday.

Miss Treva Mitchell of Square Rock has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Springer were called to Gravelly Tuesday on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Springer's father, Charles Garner. Mr. Garner was reported better late Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Self and son Tade of east Waldron left Tuesday for California to bring back their son Wayford who has been ill in a California hospital for some time.

R.C. Cross of Bauxite spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Cross of Pleasant Hill community.

Mrs. R.R. Wilson, who has been ill in a hospital in Fort Smith for some past few weeks returned home Sunday.

Miss Delane Harrell of Bates spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Claybrooks.

One of our readers, Ernest J. Woodford, formerly of Parks, writes to have his address changed to Dumas, Arkansas.

Miss Myrtle Rose Best returned to school Friday after a short illness.

Miss Kelsie Jeffcoats who has been ill the past few days returned to school Tuesday.

Mrs. Cornie Presley of Hon has been visiting Mrs. Walter Bishop of Winfield.

Miss Marie Piles is ill in a Fort Smith hospital.

Miss Clara Mae Jones is on the sick list this week.

Jim Audas was called by telegram Wednesday to visit his sister, Mrs. Emory who is dangerously ill in a hospital in Henrietta, Okla.

A surprise birthday party was given for J.L. Reed at the home of his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Will Solomon Wednesday, Feb. 10. The party was honoring his thirteenth birthday. Those present were: Luallen Black, Victor Airs, Elmo Lemings, Donnie Adams, Glen Farmer, Lester Bendle, Charline Airs, Milda Callahan, Betty Airs, Cordelia Airs and David Blalock. Refreshments consisting of coolade, cocoanut cake, candy and gum were served.

Reverend Earl McClendon and Mrs. McClendon are attending a Sunday School convention meeting in Little Rock. They left Waldron Thursday morning. While in Little Rock Bro. McClendon will confer with our legislators in regard to making the state legally dry.

M.L. Jones was here from Blackfork on business Monday.

J.S. Billings of Weeks was a Waldron visitor Tuesday.

Lois Lantrip of Ione visited in Waldron Friday.

Miss Molly Estes is visiting her sister at Cove this week.

Hilton Denton visited in Fayetteville last week.

Miss Dorothy Helen Brashier has been ill last week.

Hoyt Houston of Booneville visited Buddy Cambell Sunday.

Ethel Jones of Waldron is ill with influenza.

T.M. Hollingsworth was ill this week with influenza.

Miss Leona Glass of east Waldron is ill with influenza.

Orval Hall of Fort Smith visited the John White family Sunday.

Spence Bates went to Seminole this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Yutterman of Fort Smith visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hollingsworth Sunday.

Miss Quoquese Doyle of Hon is ill with influenza.

Billy Harris is ill with the mumps this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Williams of Hodgens, Okla. visited Mr. and Mrs. Linzy Windham of Hon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Quick visited Mr. Quick's mother who is ill with pneumonia at Russellville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Adams and family went to Wister, Okla. Sunday and visited friends.

Hollis Evatt of Booneville, Ark. visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed Evatt of west Waldron Wednesday.

Kelly Ashford of Pleasant Hill, member of the sophomore class of Waldron is ill with the mumps.

Paul Wagner of the Fuller-Judy Chevrolet Co. visited in Booneville Sunday.

Alfred Jamison of Spiro, Okla. is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Neut Smith this week.

All persons interested in organizing a congregation of the Church of Christ will please meet in the log building formerly occupied by the Public Library, located just west of the court house. Bible study at 10 a.m., communion service at 11 a.m. Sunday Feb. 21. You are urged to be present if interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wagoner and family and Miss Blanche Powell of Waldron visited relatives and friends at Joyland Park, Ark. Sunday.

Copyright Delaine Edwards 2009
All Rights Reserved